

Press Information

15 February 2007

David Lawrence Jr. K-8 Centre offers new Cambridge International Primary Programme.

Membership of Cambridge International Primary Programme, approved for local school.

David Lawrence Jr. K-8 Centre has been awarded membership of the Cambridge International Primary Programme by University of Cambridge International Examinations (CIE).

David Lawrence Jr. K-8 Centre will be able to use the Cambridge International Primary Programme, which helps teachers develop Mathematics, English and Science skills and knowledge in children aged five to eleven. The Cambridge International Primary Programme provides guidance for curriculum development and classroom teaching and learning, and it allows teachers to assess children's learning as they progress.

Ann Puntis, Chief Executive of University of Cambridge International Examinations, said: "We are delighted that David Lawrence Jr. K-8 Centre has taken this step to provide young students with the best possible education.

"By implementing the Cambridge International Primary Programme, David Lawrence Jr. K-8 Centre is using an international curriculum that will be of great benefit to their students."

Bianca Correa-Céspedes, Primary Administrator, said: "David Lawrence Jr. K-8 Centre is proud to be associated with Cambridge. The Cambridge International Primary Programme allows us to extend our service to the local community."

To learn more about the Cambridge International Primary Programme and CIE, visit www.cie.org.uk

(ends)